

Vanke Logistics Development Co., Ltd.

Resource Management Policy

1. The Company strictly abides by the applicable laws and regulations of resource utilization in the place of operation, and promises to actively advocate green and sustainable operations, continuously optimize the resource management model and the application of innovative technologies, and improve the efficiency of resource use.
2. The Company is committed to continuously optimizing and upgrading the water resources system, making necessary performance and efficiency improvement and transformation according to actual needs, and applying high-efficiency water-saving equipment and transmission and distribution systems to effectively improve resource efficiency from the source.
3. For the protection of water resources, the Company carries out strict management of the whole process covering design, construction and operation, including but not limited to prioritizing the designs in favor of water resource protection, monitoring and improving the water use efficiency of indoor and outdoor equipment, etc.
4. The Company actively explores various water-saving technologies in all projects to improve the efficiency of water resource use.

This policy is developed, revised and interpreted by the Company.

The policy is updated every three years; If necessary, it can be reviewed and updated in a timely manner.